

Practice Selection Tool

This tool is intended to assist physician organizations (POs) compare practices and select or order practices to implement and deliver collaborative care model (CoCM) services. Consider existing culture, attitude toward behavioral health services, and ability to staff the behavioral health care manager (BHCM) and psychiatric consultant roles.

Rating Scale: Very Weak (1), Weak (2), Neither weak nor strong (3), Strong (4), Very Strong (5)

Objectives

Practice Names

Objectives	Practice 1	Practice 2	Practice 3	Practice 4	Practice 5
CoCM is compatible with the practice's culture, value, vision, and mission
CoCM is compatible with the practice's financial strategy
Support from practice leadership team (e.g. medical director and practice manager)
Ability to provide a strong physician champion
Overall practice workforce stability
Willingness to treat and monitor behavioral health in primary care setting
Acceptance of MSW/RN/care manager as integral partner of treatment team
Has access to a psychiatric provider
PCPs are willing to consider implementing psychiatric recommendations
At least 50% of the PCPs in the practice are willing to participate in the CoCM
Someone is available, with dedicated time and ability, to fill the BHCM role
Willingness to create and adapt work flows and procedures
Ability to provide private space for BHCM
Comfort with increased/changed burden in shared patient care spaces
Was able to implement PDCM successfully and actively contribute to the MICMT scorecard
Total Score

Names of selected practices:

Is there anything else about these practices that would impact successful implementation of CoCM?